

Serving as a Champion for Our Community

Mission Fed has long been a champion for the San Diego community – bringing people together, helping our members achieve their financial goals, and serving as a source of strength, security and support during difficult times. Our quarterly Connections by Mission Fed newsletter captures some of the positive impact in the communities where we live, work, and serve. We are grateful for our members who believe in this mission and support our commitment to San Diego!

The “Cool Women” of Girl Scouts San Diego

The Girl Scouts San Diego Cool Women Luncheon honored exemplary women whose personal and professional lives make them consummate role models for girls. The Mission Fed team joined the annual event to support and celebrate these extraordinary “Cool Women” who make the world a better place as they balance work, family, friends, and community service. These female leaders share the spotlight with the Emerging Leader Girl Scouts, who are recognized for their outstanding achievements by their mentors and community leaders. Congratulations to all the women that were recognized for their outstanding achievements! Learn more at SDGirlScouts.org

Honoring the San Diego Police Foundation Women in Blue

Mission Fed proudly joined the San Diego Police Foundation at the 12th Annual Women in Blue Luncheon, an event that featured remarkable stories of female officers and civilian professionals who not only protect and serve San Diego, but also lead, mentor, and support their peers and communities. This year’s Women in Blue honorees exemplify the value of female representation in modern policing. Funds from Women in Blue provide scholarships to women who aspire to careers in law enforcement or criminal justice and help inspire the next generation of women in blue. Learn more at SDPoliceFoundation.org

YMCA Keeping Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s Legacy Alive

Mission Fed joined hundreds of community members for the 38th annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Human Dignity Awards Breakfast, presented by the Jackie Robinson Family YMCA. The event celebrated the life and legacy of Dr. King by honoring San Diegans who exemplify the civil rights leader’s spirit and humanitarian ideals and raised funds for the Jackie Robinson YMCA. Mission Fed congratulates all community members doing amazing work to keep Dr. King’s legacy alive. Learn more at YMCAsd.org

San Diego Latino Film Festival Celebrating Latino Culture for 30 Years

Mission Fed served as a sponsor of the 30th annual San Diego Latino Film Festival, a celebration of Latino cinema, arts, and culture. The event ran March 9-19 and presented over 160 films from Latin America and the U.S., Q&A with visiting filmmakers, free student screenings, in-person movies at Westfield Mission Valley AMC theatre, and additional screenings and events at the Digital Gym Cinema. One of the larger and well-respected Latino film festivals in the world, the San Diego Latino Film Festival is organized by the Media Arts Center San Diego, a local nonprofit that endorses the inclusion of underrepresented communities in the media arts field and promotes community access to and use of media technology. Learn more at MediaArtsCenter.org

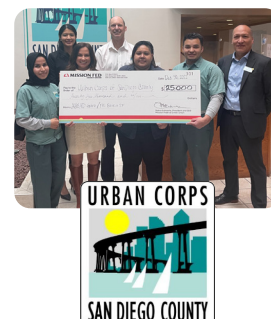

MAAC Impact Conference – It Starts with Us

This January, Mission Fed staff had the opportunity to present at the MAAC Impact Conference “It Starts with Us,” an all-day experience for MAAC staff to reflect on personal values, behaviors, decisions, and interactions and how they have a collective impact on the organization and community. The Mission Fed session “Tu Dinero - Tu Futuro / Your Money - Your Future” empowered participants with tools, hands-on practical advice, and planning steps toward creating a strong financial future. Since 1965, MAAC has been a champion for underrepresented communities throughout San Diego County, providing families in need with resources to achieve self-sufficiency and improve their living conditions. Learn more at MAACProject.org

Urban Corps of San Diego Building Resiliency Throughout the Region

Founded in 1989, Urban Corps of San Diego County provides young adults the tools to expand their career opportunities through paid job training, support services and if needed, a second chance to earn a high school diploma. In support of that mission, Mission Fed awarded Urban Corps with $25,000 in grant funding from the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco’s 2022 AHEAD Program. Mission Fed is honored to support Urban Corps and help build resiliency in our communities. Learn more at UrbanCorpsSD.org

Mission Fed: A Superior Rating at a Top Workplace

Mission Fed received a 2022 top 5-Star Superior Rating, the highest rating attainable from BauerFinancial Inc., the Nation’s Bank and Credit Union Rating Firm for over a quarter of a century. Earning a 5-Star Superior Rating is based on the overall 2022 financial picture of our institution, which indicates that Mission Fed is one of the strongest credit unions in the nation and represents a solid recommendation by BauerFinancial Inc.

Top Workplaces 2023 USA celebrates nationally recognized companies that prioritize a people-centered culture. For the second time, Mission Fed is honored to join an elite group of organizations recognized for their role in “making the world a better place to work together.” The Top Workplaces USA award is based solely on feedback through an anonymous 3rd party employee survey...this achievement would not be possible without our valued employees.

Federally Insured by NCUA

